FROM TRANSACTION BOOKS

Coming to My Senses is quite simply the best autobiography by an American social scientist I have ever read—Robert K. Merton, Columbia University

We should be grateful for this honest, lucid, and elegantly written memoir—Lewis Coser, SUNY/Stony Brook

COMING TO MY SENSES THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF A SOCIOLOGIST

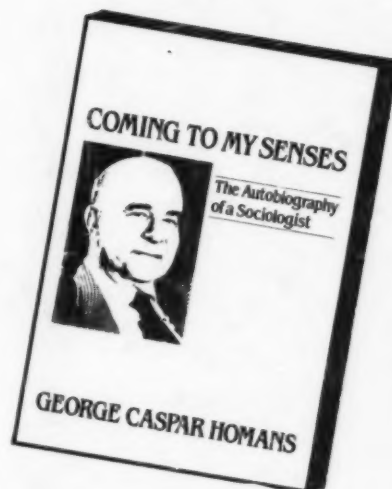

George Caspar Homans

Those interested in the development of scientific theory and in the nature of academic life will appreciate this intellectual autobiography written with great beauty and frankness by one of America's leading sociologists. Following his family tradition (The Education of Henry Adams was written by his great uncle), Homans describes how his ideas about the proper nature of theory in social science, both in form and content, have developed over time. The chief interest of the book lies in the description of this process.

George Caspar Homans is professor of sociology emeritus, Harvard University. He is author of The Human Group and Social Behavior, along with numerous other works on social behavior and social theory.
